1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-28 and 32, drawn to collecting devices information, classified in class 709, subclass 224.
 - II. Claims 29-31, drawn to I/O command processing, classified in class 710, subclass 5.
 - III. Claims 33-35, drawn to storage subsystem controller, classified in class 710, subclass 1.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions Group I, Group II, and Group III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention Group I has separate utility such as monitor and collect devices coupled to host bus adapters, Group II has separate utility such as read connection information command processing protocol, and Group III has separate utility such as storage subsystem controller architecture. See MPEP § 806.05(d).
3. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:
 - a. These inventions have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification

b. The search required for one Group is not required for the other Groups

For the reasons above restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. A telephone call was made to Mr. R. Michael Ananian on 09/24/2002 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(h).

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Le H. Luu, whose telephone number is (703) 305-9650.
